Motions to Compel: June 16, 2023
Report Re: Settlement Conference: July 28, 2023
Non-expert Discovery: September 8, 2023

This Court now sets a schedule for this action through the filing of dispositive motions.

I. DISCOVERY PROCEDURES

Discovery is now open and the parties are granted leave to serve discovery requests.

Pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 1, 16, and 26-36, discovery shall proceed as follows:

1. The parties may take the following types of discovery from other parties:
 - a. Interrogatories (an interrogatory is a written question or request for information and “may relate to any matter that may be inquired into under Rule 26(b).” Fed. R. Civ. P. 33(a)(2));
 - b. Requests for Production (a request for production is a written request that the opposing party produce documents or electronically stored information, “including writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, sound recordings, images, and other data or data compilations,” or a written request that the opposing party produce any designated tangible things. Fed. R. Civ. P.

34(a)(1));

- c. Requests for Admissions (a request for admission is a written request that the opposing party “admit, for purposes of the pending action only, the truth of any matters within the scope of Rule 26(b)(1)” that relate to “(A) facts, the application of law to fact, or opinions about either; [or] (B) the genuineness of any described documents.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(a)(1)); and
 - d. Depositions (a deposition is where one party (or that party’s counsel) questions someone under oath, and a court reporter is present to record the proceedings).¹

1. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 30(a)(2)(B),

Defendant(s) may depose any witness confined in a prison on the condition that, at least fourteen (14) days before such a deposition, Defendant(s) serve all parties with the notice required by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 30(b)(1). Plaintiff's failure to participate in a properly noticed deposition could result in sanctions against Plaintiff, including monetary sanctions and/or dismissal of this case. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 30(b)(4), the parties may take any deposition under this section by video conference without a further motion or order of the Court, relieving the court reporter of the requirement to be in the physical presence of the witness under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 28(a)(1) during that deposition.

2. If Plaintiff wishes to take a deposition, Plaintiff must file a motion requesting permission to do so, specifically showing the ability to comply with the applicable Federal Rules of Civil Procedure by providing the name of the person to be deposed, the name and

¹ “Instead of participating in the oral examination, a party may serve written questions in a sealed envelope on the party noticing the deposition, who must deliver them to the officer. The officer must ask the deponent those questions and record the answers verbatim.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(c)(3).

1 address of the court reporter who will take the deposition, the 2 estimated cost for the court reporter's time and the recording, and 3 the source of funds for payment of that cost. Plaintiff bears the 4 responsibility to pay the costs of the deposition, including the cost
5 of copies of deposition transcript(s).²

- 6 2. A party may serve on any other party no more than 15 interrogatories, 15 requests for 7 production of documents, and 15 requests for admission. If a party wishes to serve
8 additional discovery requests, that party may file a motion for additional discovery
9 requests with the Court, explaining why additional discovery requests are necessary.
- 10 3. Discovery requests and responses should be sent to the opposing part(ies), or their 11 counsel if represented. They should not be filed with the Court.
- 12 4. Responses to written discovery requests shall be due forty-five (45) days after the 13 request is first served. Boilerplate objections are disfavored and may be summarily
14 overruled by the Court. Responses to document requests shall include all documents
15 within a party's possession, custody, or control. Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(a)(1). Documents
16 are deemed to be within a party's possession, custody, or control if the party has actual 17 possession, custody, or control thereof, or the legal right to obtain the property on 18 demand. If Defendant(s) cannot obtain documents from Plaintiff's institution(s) of 19 confinement, Defendant(s) shall clearly respond that a third party subpoena will be 20 necessary to obtain documents from Plaintiff's institution(s) of confinement.
- 21 5. If any party or third party withholds a document on the basis of privilege, that party or 22 third party shall provide a privilege log to the requesting party identifying the date,
23 author, recipients, general subject matter, and basis of the privilege within thirty (30)
24 days after the date that responses are due. Failure to provide a privilege log within this 25 time shall result in a waiver of the privilege. Additionally, if a party is claiming a 26 right to withhold witness statements and/or evidence gathered from investigation(s)

27 _____
28 ² The Court may request input from Plaintiff's institution of confinement to determine if the deposition(s) can proceed in a safe and secure manner before ruling on a motion for a deposition.

1 into the incident(s) at issue in the complaint based on the official information privilege
 2 or confidentiality, the withholding party shall submit the withheld witness statements
 3 and/or evidence to the Court for in camera review, along with an explanation of why
 4 the witness statements and/or evidence should be withheld.³ The witness statements
 5 and/or evidence shall be Bates stamped, and mailed to Judge Grosjean at 2500 Tulare
 6 Street, Sixth Floor, Fresno, CA 93721. The withholding party shall also file and serve
 7 a notice that they have complied with this order. All other claims of privilege may be 8 challenged via a motion to compel.

- 9 6. If Plaintiff seeks documents from someone who is not a party in this case, Plaintiff
 10 must file a request for the issuance of a subpoena duces tecum with the Court. In any 11 request for a subpoena, Plaintiff must: (1) identify the documents sought and from 12 whom; (2) explain why the documents are relevant to the claims in this case; and (3)
 13 make a showing in the request that the records are only obtainable through a third
 14 party. If the Court approves the request, it may issue Plaintiff a subpoena duces
 15 tecum, commanding the production of documents from a non-party, and may 16 command service of the subpoena by the United States Marshals Service. Fed. R. Civ.
 17 P. 45; 28 U.S.C. § 1915(d). However, the Court will consider granting such a request
 18 only if the documents sought from the non-party are not obtainable from Defendant(s)
 19 through a Rule 34 request for production of documents.

20 3 See Woodford v. Ngo, 548 U.S. 81, 94-95 (2006) (“[P]roper exhaustion improves the quality of those
 21 prisoner suits that are eventually filed because proper exhaustion often results in the creation of an administrative 22 record that is helpful to the court. When a grievance is filed shortly after the event giving rise to the grievance,
 23 witnesses can be identified and questioned while memories are still fresh, and evidence can be gathered and 24 preserved.”).

25 The “common law governmental privilege (encompassing and referred to sometimes as the official or state
 26 secret privilege) . . . is only a qualified privilege, contingent upon the competing interests of the requesting litigant 27 and subject to disclosure. . . .” Kerr v. U.S. Dist. Ct. for N. Dist. of Cal., 511 F.2d 192, 198 (9th Cir. 1975) (citations
 28 omitted). The Ninth Circuit has since followed Kerr in requiring in camera review and a balancing of interests in 29 ruling on the government’s claim of the official information privilege. See, e.g., Breed v. U.S. Dist. Ct. for N. Dist. of 30 Cal., 542 F.2d 1114, 1116 (9th Cir. 1976) (“[A]s required by Kerr, we recognize ‘that in camera review is a highly 31 appropriate and useful means of dealing with claims of governmental privilege.’”) (quoting Kerr v. U. S. Dist. Ct. for 32 N. Dist. of Cal., 426 U.S. 394, 406 (1976)); Sanchez v. City of Santa Ana, 936 F.2d 1027, 1033-34 (9th Cir. 1990), as 33 amended on denial of reh’g (Feb. 27, 1991), as amended on denial of reh’g (May 24, 1991) (“Government personnel
 34 files are considered official information. To determine whether the information sought is privileged, courts must 35 weigh the potential benefits of disclosure against the potential disadvantages. If the latter is greater, the privilege 36 bars discovery.”) (citations omitted).

- 1 7. The parties are required to act in good faith during the course of discovery and the 2 failure to do so may result in the payment of expenses pursuant to Federal Rule of 3 Civil Procedure 37(a)(5) or other appropriate sanctions authorized by the Federal 4 Rules of Civil Procedure or the Local Rules.
5 8. The parties have until June 16, 2023, to file motion(s) to compel further discovery
6 responses. The motion(s) should include a copy of the request(s) and any response to 7 the request(s) at issue. The responding party may file a response to the motion no later
8 than twenty-one days from the date the motion is filed. If, after reviewing the 9 motion(s) and response(s), the Court determines that a hearing will be helpful, the 10 Court will set a hearing on the motion(s) to compel.

11 II. PAGE LIMITS AND COURTESY COPIES

12 The parties are advised that unless prior leave of the Court is obtained before the filing
13 deadline,⁴ all moving and opposition briefs or legal memoranda shall not exceed twenty-five (25)
14 pages. Reply briefs by the moving party shall not exceed ten (10) pages. These page limits do 15 not include exhibits.

16 Defendant(s) shall mail or deliver courtesy hard-copies of all motions over 10 pages in 17 length to the court at 2500 Tulare St., Room 1501, Fresno, CA 93721. Courtesy hard-copies shall 18 reflect the CM/ECF document numbers and pagination.

20 The deadline for the completion of all non-expert discovery is September 8, 2023.

21 IV. EXHAUSTION MOTION DEADLINE

22 The deadline for Defendant(s) to present any challenge for failure to exhaust
23 administrative remedies is May 12, 2023.⁵ Failure to raise the exhaustion defense by this 24 deadline will result in waiver of the defense. See Albino v. Baca, 747 F.3d 1162, 1170 (9th Cir.
25 2014) (providing that the exhaustion question should be decided as early as feasible).

27 ⁴ Parties may seek leave by filing a short motion.

28 ⁵ If Defendant(s) need an extension of this deadline, Defendant(s) shall file a motion requesting an extension of this deadline.

1 V. DISPOSITIVE MOTIONS DEADLINE

2 The deadline for filing dispositive motions, including motions for summary judgment
3 (other than dispositive motions based on the defense of failure to exhaust administrative 4 remedies), is October 13, 2023. The deadline to file oppositions to dispositive motions,
5 including motions for summary judgment, is thirty days from the date the motion is filed. The 6 deadline to file replies to oppositions is fourteen days from the date the opposition is filed. If a
7 party needs an extension of any of these deadlines, that party may file a motion for an extension
8 of time.⁶

9 If Defendant(s) file a motion for summary judgment, Defendant(s) shall simultaneously
10 provide Plaintiff with the notice and warning required by Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952 (9th 11 Cir. 1998).

12 VI. SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE

13 The Court is not setting a settlement conference at this time. Defendant(s) shall

15 position on whether a settlement conference would be productive.⁸

16 VII. FURTHER DATES AND DEADLINES

17 If this case is still proceeding after dispositive motions have been resolved, or if no
18 dispositive motions are filed, the Court will set expert disclosure deadlines,⁹ a pretrial conference, 19 pretrial deadlines, and a trial date.

20 VIII. EFFECT OF THIS ORDER

21 This order represents the Court's best estimated schedule through dispositive motions.
22 Any party unable to comply with the dates outlined in this order shall immediately file an 23 appropriate motion or stipulation identifying the requested modification(s).

24 The dates set in this order are considered to be firm and will not be modified absent a

25 ⁶ If Plaintiff requests an extension due to a lack of law library access, he should attach his request for law 26 library access and/or paging services, as well as the institution's response to his request (if any), to his motion for an extension of time.

27 ⁷ The parties may confer by letter.

28 ⁸ If the Court sets a settlement conference, the parties may request an extension of any remaining deadlines.

⁹ While the Court is not setting a deadline for expert disclosures at this time, the parties may provide their
